Experience

Sharra B. Cauler is an Analyst at Granite GRC Consulting. In this role, she collects, organizes, and interprets complex statistical information to help clients make important decisions. She has extensive experience identifying facts and trends using data narratives to inform strategic initiatives.

Before joining Granite GRC Consulting, Sharra processed payroll for a business accounting firm. She was responsible for the payroll processing for over 70 clients, including handling taxation, salaries, benefits, preparation of quarterly payroll tax forms and annual W2s, and all payroll related requests. She has also served as a cost analyst for a major regional hospital, creating monthly and quarterly reports and maintaining payroll, general ledger and patient data within a decision support software system. Prior to that, she was a payroll analyst, processing payroll for over 3,000 employees across multiple entities.

Sharra has earned her B.S. in Business Administration from Millersville University.
